What is PHEXcel?

PHEXcel is a consultancy service for higher education providers that strive to excel at integrating with the world of work. Through PHEXcel, participating organisations can analyse their relationship with the world of work, and through a process of active-learning, identify areas for enhancement and develop appropriate actions. Excelling in this domain means using in an outstanding manner (taking into account the national and international field) the systematic and circular relationship between education, research and professional practice.
